

Ball Valves

Ball valves allow water flow control through a hollow ball with a handle that pivots through 90°. The handle is positioned in line with the hole in the internal ball making it easy to recognise whether the Valve is open or not.

Supplied with BSP female thread the valve can be fitted with any corresponding male BSP threaded adaptor to allow in-line connection within a series of hoses.

INLET: BSP Female Thread

OUTLET: BSP Female Thread

SIZE: ½" to 6" ports

OPTIONS:

Can be fitted with any corresponding male BSP threaded adaptor to allow in line connection with all international coupling types.

MATERIALS: Chromium Plated Brass
Stainless Steel